

Te Tai Pari: Towards a Sustainable Blue Economy for Tairāwhiti
Thursday 13 – Friday 14 September 2018
Emerald Hotel Gisborne

THURSDAY 13th

9.00am	Arrivals & Registrations
10.00am	Karakia / Mihi Whakatau
	Welcome/Notices
	Opening Address
Local Aspirations
10.20am	Panel Session: Hapū Priorities and Aspirations Hapu Representatives from the East Coast taking part in the Huataukina to Iwi E Kina Research Project provide a grassroots perspective and talk about the possibilities for hapū under the Ngati Porou Foreshore and Seabed Agreement.
10.35am	Questions & Answers
10.45am	Case Study: Huataukina to Iwi E Dr Matt Miller (Cawthron Institute) & Sarah Bond (Massey University) share insights into recent research collaboration Hikurangi Bioactives and local hapū on East Coast Kina
11:00am	Questions & Answers
11.10am	Morning Tea
11.35am	Iwi Fisheries: Ngati Porou Seafoods Ltd The largest commercial fishing company in the region will describe their priorities in relation to the growth of the Blue Economy.
11.50am	Questions & Answers
12:00pm	Keynote Speaker: Mapping Marine Bioactives in Tairawhiti Professor Chris Battershill from the University of Waikato will share his research into Marine Bioactives on the East Coast.
12.30pm	Questions & Answers
12.35pm	Lunch
National Science Challenges: Sustainable Seas
1.30pm	Panel Session: What is the Sustainable Seas Science Challenge Leaders from the Sustainable Seas Science Challenge will discuss the purpose of the challenge, goals for various parts of the challenge and the priorities for 2019.
2:00pm	Q&A
Kaitiakitanga – Sustainable Management
2.10pm	Keynote Speaker: Issues facing Indigenous Peoples Intellectual Property is a crucial aspect of Maori development, Tracey Whare will provide an important session on natural resources, ownership interests and a willingness to develop new models of preserving IP.
2.30pm	Q&A
2.40pm	Afternoon Tea

3:00 PM	Panel Session: Science & Research Caine Taiapa, Manaaki te Awanui, Dr Andrew Lohrer, NIWA, Dr Simon Hills, Massey University Dr Jason Mika, Massey University Critical opportunities and challenges exist in developing a Blue Economy, these researchers will bring to fore a range of projects and ideas relevant to Maori and the wider community.
3.40pm	Q&A
3.50pm	Keynote: Greenwave: Sustainable Marine Commercialisation Via livestream... GreenWave is an ocean farmer and fisherman-run organization dedicated to building a new blue-green economy that creates jobs, mitigates climate change and grows healthy food for local communities.
4.20pm	Q&A
4.30pm	Flexible timeslot for late confirmation speakers
5.00pm	Plenary Session + Summary and Wrap Up
FRIDAY 14th
9:00am	Arrivals
9.10am	Welcome & Notices
How to Get Started
9.30am	Panel Session: Building partnerships to progress priorities; Previous day speakers will form a panel to share experiences about how to build a collaboration from a range of perspectives.
10.00am	Questions & Answers
10.10am	Breakout Session: Accessing support to drive development opportunities. A range of agencies will be on hand to share how they are part of the process of collaboration and the support they can offer local initiatives.
11:00am	Morning Tea
11.30am	Feedback from Breakout
12:00pm	Final Session: Wrap up including next steps.
12.30pm	Karakia Whakamutunga + Depart